

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This borders on GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED media the likes of which we opposed in the former Soviet Union.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

This is NOT about the First Amendment. The First Amendment does not allow Media Corporations to force their public opinion down the throats of the consumer. The fact that they control what news gets through is a DIRECT conflict of interest.

You are opening Pandora's box. Please intervene on behalf of the public.

Thank you.
